

Allowing cross-ownership will not only promote semi-monopolies, but will allow all information in a geographical area to be filtered into one point of view. And that point-of-view will favour those who allowed cross-ownership.